This publication stands as a graceful mirror of our academic vitality, creative energies, and collective endeavours. A Small Message From Editor's Pen....

As we step once again into the vibrant corridors of our campus, we find ourselves standing on the FRONT FOOT—poised between reflection and action, tradition and transformation. This bulletin is not merely a collection of words; it is a living tapestry woven from our collective thoughts, dreams, and endeavors

May these pages inspire dialogue, nurture imagination, and strengthen our shared sense of belonging.

For a campus is not built merely of bricks and mortar, but of voices that speak, minds that question, and hearts that feel.
