As per the guidelines of UGC and Supreme court an Anti-sexual Harassment Committee be established by the college to provide a healthy atmosphere to the students of the college. Anti-sexual Harassment Committee deals with issues relating to sexual harassment. The committee is formed to prevent sexual assault, rape and other related crimes on girls students. With regard to the Supreme court Judgement and guidelines issued in 1997 to provide for the effective environment of the basic human right of gender equality and guarantee against sexual harassment and abuse, more particularly against sexual harassment at work places, the University Grant Commission (UGC) has issued circulars since 1998, to all the Universities, advising them to establish a permanent cell and committee; to develop guidelines to combat sexual harassment, violence against women and ragging at the Universities and colleges. Keeping the above guidelines in view "Prananath Autonomous College" has constituted a meeting committee against sexual harassment.

The Supreme Court of India, in a landmark Judgement in August 1997 stated that every instances of sexual harassment is a violation of "Fundamental Rights" under Article 19(1)(g). Another Supreme Court Judgement in January 1999 has stated that sexually harassing behaviour "needs to be eliminated as there is no compromise on such violations". The Supreme Court further reiterated the sexual harassment "is a violation of the fundamental right to gender equality and the right of the liberty and life". Based on these, Utkal University, to which the college is affiliated, made it mandatory for the affiliated and constituent college to adhere to following from the year 2009-2019.

Prananath Autonomous College, Khordha has committed itself to provide a congenial and conducive environment, in which students, teachers and non-teaching staffs can work together in an environment free of violence, harassment, exploitation, and intimidation. This includes all forms gender violence, sexual harassment, and discrimination on the basis of gender. Every member is expected to aware of the commitment to the rights to freedom of opposes any form of gender discrimination and violence.
